

Website Privacy Policy

We use the information we collect from you only in compliance with our Website Privacy Policy below, and our overall Privacy Practices. For more information on our Privacy Practices, please read all of our Privacy Practices also posted on our website.

For any questions regarding our Website Privacy Policy, or our overall Privacy Practices, please contact our office at: 630-232-1282.

Security: We use all necessary measures to protect the security of your data. However, it is impossible for us, or any company with a website, or conducting business on the internet, to completely 100% guarantee that your data will be immune from malicious attack or compromise; as such, you should understand that transmission of personal data through any website, or the internet, is always at your own risk.

Personal Information: As a general policy, we use personal information for normal business purposes only. We do not sell or rent information about you. We will not disclose personal information to third parties without your consent, except as explained in this Privacy Policy, or our overall Privacy Practices.

Updating Personal Information: You may correct, update, or change your personal information, or adjust or cease the frequency with which you receive messages from us at any time. You may call us directly at 630-232-1282 to make any adjustments to your personal information.

Usage and Analytics Data: We collect website usage data in order to assess how users access and utilize our website. This data helps us troubleshooting and improve the site's functionality. Usage data may include information such as your device's Internet Protocol address (e.g. IP address), browser type, browser version, the pages of our website that you visit, the time and date of your visit, the time spent on those pages, unique device identifiers and other diagnostic data.

We use Google analytics to monitor and analyze our website analytics. Google Analytics is a web analytics service offered by Google that tracks and reports website traffic. Google uses the data collected to track and monitor the use of our website. You can opt-out of having made your activity available to Google Analytics by installing the Google Analytics opt-out browser add-on. The add-on prevents Google Analytics from sharing information with Google about visits activity. For more information on the privacy practices of Google,
